

Thursday, February 16th, 8pm, an Oliver Stone film:

Directed by Oliver Stone. With Joseph Gordon-Levitt (Edward), Shailene Woodley (Lindsay). 2016, 134 min.

The untold personal story of Edward Snowden, who exposed the NSA's shocking, illegal, spy activities against us all, and became the most wanted man on the planet.

Venue: Circolo ARCI Arcobaleno, 1 Via Pullino (Metro Garbatella)

The film is in English and is free (but small donations are welcome). Arcobaleno membership is €7 per year, valid for various discounts in Rome. Doors open at 7pm; film starts at 8pm, followed by a brief discussion in English (Italian is OK, too). Drinks and a light dinner can be enjoyed before or during the film.