

EYES WIDE OPEN FILM SERIES

FALL 2007 PROGRAM

Presented by U.S. Citizens for Peace and Justice, Rome

Alternate Wednesday Evenings at 7pm

Linux Club, Via Giuseppe Libetta, 15c (Metro Garbatella)

Oct 3 - Bush's Brain (2004)

An in-depth look at the man and machinery behind Bush's political career -- Karl Rove, a political strategist who has been described as having a "junkyard-dog approach to politics."

Special Karl Rove Goodbye Party!

Oct 17 - Iraq in Fragments (2006)

This hard-hitting, yet poignant documentary looks at life through the eyes of Shiites, Sunnis and Kurds and is the sum of two years work as American director James Longley struggled to encapsulate a war that is being fought on three fronts. Nominated for an Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature in 2007.

Oct 31 - A Crude Awakening: The Oil Crash (2006)

An unforgettable and shocking wake-up call: the era of cheap oil is in the past. Relentless and clear-eyed, this intensively-researched film drills deep into the uncomfortable realities of a world that is both addicted to fossil fuels and blissfully unaware of the looming "peak oil" crisis.

Nov 14 - War Made Easy: How Presidents & Pundits Keep Spinning Us to Death (2007)

Brings to the screen Norman Solomon's insightful book with an analysis of the strategies used by administrations, both Democratic and Republican, to promote their agendas for war from Vietnam to Iraq. Encourages us to think critically about the messages put out by today's spin-doctors, which promote and prolong a policy of militarism under the guise of the "war on terror."

Nov 28 - Thanksgiving Special, The Future of Food (2005)

There is a revolution transforming the very nature of the food we eat. Explores the disturbing truth behind the unlabeled, patented, genetically engineered foods that have quietly filled grocery store shelves for the past decade, while examining the complex web of market and political forces that are changing what we eat as huge multi-national corporations seek to control the world's food system.

Dec 12 - Jesus Camp (2006)

A first-ever look into an intense training ground that recruits born-again Christian children to become an active part of America's political future. Follow 3 children to Pastor Becky Fischer's "Kids on Fire" summer camp in Devil's Lake, North Dakota, where kids as young as 6 years-old are taught to become dedicated Christian soldiers in "God's army." Nominated for an Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature in 2007.

Films begin at 7pm, followed by a brief discussion and (for those who wish to join) pizza afterwards.

All films will be screened in English.
